

Courage is being brave enough to do what you should do, even when you're afraid.

Read: Galatians 6:9

DAY
1

Do What's Right

Ask your parent what you can do this week to be a help—not just right now but something you can do each day this week. Talk through how and when it is best to do this task. Throughout this week do what you talked about every day, even when you don't want to. Ask God to give you the energy and strength to do it all week.

KNOW that doing the right thing helps others.

DAY
3

Roll With It

With the help of a friend (or a few), practice this week's memory verse with a ball. Sit on the floor with your feet touching, pass the ball across to your friend, and say one word of the verse. Each roll equals one word. Example: Let (roll) us (roll) not . . .

ASK God to give you the strength to do good.

DAY
2

Daniel and the Lions

Draw a picture of Daniel in the lions' den from our Bible story this week. Once you finish the drawing, share the story of Daniel with someone in your house. You can talk about why he got there, what he did while he was in the den, and why he got out.

LOOK for ways to have faith and courage like Daniel.

DAY
4

Do What You Could

When we don't know what to do, praying is something we could do! Pray and ask God to help you as you try to always do what you should.

~~~~~
 "Dear God, sometimes it is so hard to do or say the right thing. Please give me the courage I need to do what I should. I want to help others any way I can. Help me to do this well. Thank You for the courage You have given me. Amen."

~~~~~
THANK God for always being a prayer away when you need the courage to do what's right.

You can do what you should because God is with you.
